

BELL'O DIGITAL® PERFORMANCE AND SAFETY RECOMMENDATIONS

- To avoid ear damage or hearing loss, make sure the volume on your music playing device is turned down before connecting your Bell'O Digital® in-ear headphones. After placing in your ears, gradually turn up the volume until you reach a comfortable listening level.
- Avoid listening at high volume levels for prolonged periods. This may cause permanent ear damage or hearing loss.
- DO NOT insert the headphone so deeply into your ear canal that you feel any discomfort or pain.
- Use Bell'O Digital® in-ear headphones responsibly, and be aware of your surroundings. Do not use when it is unsafe to do so, such as: while operating a vehicle, crossing streets at crosswalks, or during any activity or in any environment where your full attention to your surroundings is required.
- Always use the proper size rubber in-ear tip that came with your Bell'O Digital® in-ear headphones. Proper fit is essential to performance and safety.
- If desired, slightly twist your Bell'O Digital® in-ear headphone as you insert it into your ear. This will create a small level of suction and a snug fit that will allow the headphone to remain in place during exercise or other activity.
