SANDPIPER OF CALIFORNIA

Sandpiper of California was established in 1980 to produce modern, mission-specific gear that is affordable and reliable. For over 30 years our quest for quality has been a progression to better products for our customers.

For 2012 we are offering our widest collection to date. The new items remain faithful to our tradition of practical design with durability and versatility. With continued advancements in material, hardware and fabric, our products keep pace with your needs.

The growth and success of our US manufacturing is a great source of pride. Our new line of tactical packs, accessories and pouches are an exciting addition to our 2012 line up.

Our success has been a result of one basic philosophy: Make a good product and provide good service. By keeping it simple we have maintained consistency in our manufacturing and service quality levels, while improving our products and increasing sales growth opportunities.
