

Guardzilla™

Limited Warranty

Subject to the terms and conditions set forth herein, Practecol provides this Limited Warranty:

- Only to the person that originally purchased the product from Practecol or its authorized distributor, and
- Only for products purchased within the United States and the District of Columbia

Limited Warranty: Practecol warrants that the hardware portion of the Guardzilla product will be free from material defects under normal use from the date of original retail purchase of the product, for the timeframe described below:

- Hardware: 1 Year
- Power cord: 1 Year

If you make an eligible hardware claim under this manufacturer's warranty, Pratecol will honor this warranty by doing one of the following (at its option). Repair the product or replacement of the product if necessary.

Along with the Guardzilla Limited Hardware Warranty, we provide technical support free of charge for as long as you have your Guardzilla device. This includes tech support via phone and email. This warranty gives you specific legal rights and you may also have other rights, which vary from state to state.

You may contact Guardzilla via phone at 855.268.7733 or via email at support@guardzilla.com.
